

DEPARTMENT E JUNIOR LIVESTOCK

Superintendents
Curtis Allen, Cody Burson

Notice To All Junior Livestock Exhibitors RULES HAVE CHANGED-READ CAREFULLY General Rules and Regulations Administration of Rules and Regulations The Eastern New Mexico State Fair Board, Inc. reserves to the Fair Board the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with or incident to the Show, and the right to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine. An exhibitor who violates any of the following rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalty as the Junior Livestock Committee may order.

Special rules or conditions are published in each department where necessary; if there is a conflict between the special rules of any department and the general rules and regulations, the special rules will govern.

The Eastern New Mexico State Fair Board, Inc. reserves the right to test when and where they feel it necessary, included, but not limited to, random testing on entry day.

Entry Deadline:

All Entries must be submitted by Monday September 26, 2016 on enmsf.com

Eligibility for Entry

All Animals MUST be on the grounds Sunday, October 2, 2016 from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. only, NO EXCEPTIONS. All animals must be loaded and unloaded on the east side of the barns only unless otherwise notified.

1. Animal Inspection: As condition for participation at the ENMSF, exhibitor must agree to submit any animal entered by the exhibitor for inspection. Exhibitor agrees to have such animal submitted to any tests requested by officials of ENMSF. Exhibitor also agrees that the option reached by the ENMSF or its officials as to whether such animal is unethically fitted or over age shall be final and binding without recourse against ENMSF or any of its officers. Further, ENMSF specifically reserves the right to have tissue, blood, or urine laboratory analysis made on any animal entered for competition. The conclusions reached by the laboratory shall be final and binding without recourse against ENMSF or any of its officers. An exhibitor of an animal that is found to be unethically fitted, over age, and/or testing positive for any drug or medication or unapproved chemical may forfeit all entry fees, awards both monetary and symbolic, rights, and privileges to exhibit livestock in the future at ENMSF.

2. Contestants: All contestants in this department must be bonafide 4-H (or eligible for 4-H membership in the October 2016 October 2017 year) or FFA members and will be subject to the rules as stated in this catalog. All entries must be certified by the County 4-H Agent or the Vocational Agriculture Teacher plus the parent.

Participants must be in good standing with 4-H or FFA in one of the participating ENMSF counties and be a minimum of 8 years of age AND in the third grade and a maximum of 19 years of age as of January 1st of the current calendar year.

3. 4-H exhibitors must be enrolled in the project in which they are exhibiting. FFA exhibitors can exhibit only the animals which are part of their project. Feeding practices and record keeping of this work must be done under the supervision of: County Extension 4-H Agents, Vo-Ag Instructors or 4-H Club Leaders. Documentation may be requested of instructor by ENMSF at any time.

4. Livestock must be owned by exhibitor during the feeding period preceding the Fair and cannot change ownership or be transferred from one program to the other. The ownership period shall be: Market Beef by May 1; Market Hog by June 30; Market Lamb by June 30; Dairy Heifer by June 30; Meat Goats by June 30.

5. No exhibitor shall be eligible to compete, or having competed be eligible to win a premium, if he or she has been disqualified from competition or has had a premium withheld or withdrawn on the grounds of rule violations involving misrepresentation, fraud or deception, practiced or attempted at any fair.

6. Exhibitor must show own animals unless excused in writing by Superintendent. Owner may secure some other Junior Show exhibitor to show his or her animal in case of illness or if he or she is showing more than one entry at that time. No one will be permitted to assist the exhibitor while showing any animal.

7. Exhibitor will stand accountable for loss if carcass is condemned.

8. No animals will be brought into ENMSF grounds at any time before, during or after shows that were not inspected by official Fair Veterinarian and N.M. Livestock Inspectors.

9. All animals that do not qualify upon arrival will be marked and not allowed to return this year.

10. TB testing papers are required by the New Mexico Livestock Board Inspectors and will be enforced by the New Mexico Livestock Board Inspectors. Please contact your local Livestock Board Inspector for Requirements needed to show at the ENMSF.

11. ENMSF reserves the right to weigh any participating animal that is eligible for packer bid.

12. All livestock exhibits will be under the control and direction of the fair board, but the show will in no case be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage done to, or occasioned by, or arising from, any animal or article exhibited by him or her and for its description as given in the catalog, and shall indemnify the fair board against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto, as well as damage or injury to any other person or property, caused by the exhibitor, or any of the animals exhibited by him or her or arising out of, or in any way connected with such exhibition or any of the animals so exhibited.

13. No golf carts, 4 wheelers, ATVs, etc. past the barn area.

Care of Animals, Stalls and Pens

1. All animals will be shown as brought to fairgrounds, there will be no electrical or battery operated clippers allowed on fairgrounds at any time. Animals may be washed & blow dried, hand clippers & scissors will be allowed.

2. All animals may be weighed at random.

3. All stalls, pens and exhibition places must be cleaned before 7:00 a.m. Each day and refuse matter disposed of as directed by the livestock show management. For those exhibitors refusing to keep their stalls, pens and/or exhibits clean and neat, the fair board reserves the right to have said stalls or pens properly cleaned with the cost to be charged against the exhibitor. Said cost will be collected from the exhibitor before release is issued.

4. All livestock will be bedded on washed sand. Sand must not be removed from stalls.

5. If medication needs to be administered to an animal, you must first notify a board member or superintendent before the medicine is given. No exceptions!!

6. Outside pens for breeding beef heifers, steers, and dairy heifers may be rented for $50 for the week of fair. This fee will be paid online with entry if available or on arrival when receiving passes from the Junior Livestock department. Exhibitors are encouraged to bring their own pens at no charge.

PROCEDURES FOR ENTRY

1. All applicants for entry must be made online at enmsf.com either by digital submission or by downloading and mailing in official entry sheets in accordance with instruction on same, giving information required on said sheet. Incomplete entries will not be processed. Mailed entries shall be sent to ENMSF P.O. Box 824, Roswell, NM 88202-0824.

2. In all cases, the Fair Board reserves the right to reject, accept or accept conditionally, an application for entry, and does not guarantee space in the exhibition buildings. Entries received after all pens, stalls or coops have been reserved will be returned to the exhibitor.

3. By submitting an online entry or downloading an entry the Exhibitor (an exhibitor's parent or legal guardian if exhibitor is a minor) is acknowledging that he or she understands and will abide by the liability requirements and rules and regulations.

It is the policy of the Eastern New Mexico State Fair Board, Inc., that all exhibitors, parents, advisors and representatives of schools and counties represent themselves in an ethical manner at all times.

Exhibitors, parents, advisors and other individuals associated with an exhibitor shall at all times adhere to the rules and procedures set forth in this Fair Book and will comply with the instructions of Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent and other Fair officials. Exhibitors and their representatives will afford all Superintendents, assistants and Fair officials the proper respect at all times. Unethical practices shall include but not be limited to the following: doctoring, drugging, or injecting show animals for body fill-ins, filling of abdominal cavity with air. The alterations, changing, defacing, bleaching, shading, dyeing, frosting or any other modification of the markings of show animals and the anatomical structure of an animal (such as blowing binder twine, wood chips or cork on the legs to make them appear heavier boned and more level). Added hair is considered foreign to the animal, also any type of injection where oil, glycerin or like substances are used for body "fill-ins", or external application of ede matous condition. The removal, alteration, changing or purposely damaging of ear tags is cause for disqualification.

Any exhibitor found guilty of any of the above listed Unethical practices, or any other practice deemed unethical by the Fair Board will be subject to such penalties against the exhibitor and person or organization associated therewith, as the Fair Board deems appropriate such penalty may include forfeiture of sale prices and loss of privilege to exhibit in the future.

NUMBER OF ENTRIES AND FEES

Entry Fee: An entry fee of $30.00 per head will be charged to junior exhibitors of steers, breeding beef heifers and dairy heifers. A fee of $20.00 per head will be charged to junior exhibitors of market sheep, market swine and meat goats. Stalls will be bedded on sand upon arrival. No tie outs allowed. There will be NO refunds on animals entered but not brought to the fair.

EXHIBITOR'S PASSES

Each individual entered in the Junior Livestock show will receive one armband for him or her, and three armbands for family members. These armbands will act as both admittance passes and vehicle passes. Vehicle driver and all passengers must have an armband on or an admittance fee will be accessed. NO EXCEPTIONS.

PROTESTS

Three (3) individuals must submit written protests and be accompanied by $50 cash or certified check which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of the complaint or appeal and must be delivered to the Superintendent of Show immediately after the occasion for such protest. Protests must be submitted either prior to judging or immediately after the conclusion of CLASS judging. Once an animal reaches championship judging NO protest will be accepted.

Judging procedures will not be interrupted for protest investigation. Depending on the basis of the protest, a decision may be withheld until a thorough investigation is completed. No complaint or appeal that judges overlooked an animal will be considered.

DECISIONS OF THE JUDGES FINAL

The decision of the judges shall be final in all cases. In cases where fraud, misrepresentation, error or collusion is discovered after awards are given, the livestock Superintendent or such referee as may be appointed, may make a decision regarding final placement. Such cases may be appealed to the Junior Livestock Committee, from whose decision there will be no appeal.

If any exhibitor or his or her representative interferes in any way with the judges or shows disrespect to them, or the Fair, the Superintendent may withhold from such exhibitor any premium monies that may have been awarded, or take any other steps deemed acceptable.

EXHIBIT REMOVAL

At the close of the Fair, all exhibits must be claimed at once by the exhibitor or by parties representing the exhibitor. Those in charge will assume no responsibility for exhibits left on the fairgrounds after the close of the Fair. The Eastern New Mexico State Fair is responsible for the disposition of Sale Animals ONLY.

FITTING OF LIVESTOCK

The Junior Livestock Committee agrees that instruction in fitting show animals at the ENMSF should be encouraged, but that fitting by adults will be prohibited except in the presence of the Junior Exhibitor. Violation of above will be grounds for disqualifications. Steer trimming chutes will not be allowed in the barns or in alley ways. No animals bearing graffiti of any kind will be allowed through the show or sales ring.

PEN ASSIGNMENT

Superintendent will assign pens to each exhibit by county or chapter. Information for Junior Poultry, Rabbits & Goats can be found under the respective headings. Outside pens for breeding beef heifers, steers, and dairy heifers may be rented for $50 for the week of fair. This fee will be paid online with entry if available or on arrival when receiving passes from the Junior Livestock department. Exhibitors are encouraged to bring their own pens at no charge. Trim chutes will be in designated areas only.

SHOWMANSHIP AWARDS

Prizes will be awarded to junior exhibitors for showmanship ability on the following:

- (a) Showmanship in the ring - 50%
- (b) Cooperation with officials and other exhibitors - 25%
- (c) Grooming, fitting and training of animals - 25%

RELEASE FROM LIABILITY

As condition to entry the exhibitor and parent/guardian agrees to release, acquit, and forever discharge and agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless ENMSF their present and former directors, officers, employees, agents, and representatives and the respective heirs, administrators, executors, successors, and assigns (collectively the "ENMSF Parties" or individually, an "ENMSF Party") from any and all claims, causes of actions, suits, and/or demands for personal injury, death, or property damage accrued or to accrue in the future, known or unknown, (collectively, "Claims") relating to or arising out of any negligent, grossly negligent, and/or intentional or unintentional acts on the part of the exhibitor in connection with entry into and participation at ENMSF. Without limiting the foregoing, the exhibitor agrees that the ENMSF Parties shall not be liable to them, their family, heirs, administrators, executors, or assigns for Claims arising from or related to the exhibitor's entry and participation at ENMSF.

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SALE

Cherri Snyder, Chairperson

Buyers Breakfast

October 8, 2016 • 8:00 a.m.

Buyers Breakfast Donated & Prepared by FARMERS COUNTRY MARKET

SALE: 9:00 a.m.

1. A Junior Livestock Sale will be held under the auspices of a committee directly responsible and appointed by the Fair Board. The sale will begin promptly at 9:00 a.m., October 8, following the Buyers Breakfast. A maximum of 20 Steers, 32 Lambs, 30 Swine, up to 2 broiler pens, 1 Best Fancy Bird, up to 4 Rabbits, 14 Dairy Heifers and up to 6 Goats, depending on number of entries will be sold. Order of sale will be determined by Jr. Livestock Sales Committee. All animals may be marked on leaving Sales Ring. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to have animals ready and in place at time of sale.

2. No animal sold through a Jr. Livestock or any other premium sale in New Mexico or elsewhere will be allowed to show at ENMSF.

3. All animals participating in sale must be presented as if they were going to the show ring. No graffiti, ribbons, baskets, boxes, tubs, glitter, etc. of any kind will be allowed.

4. SALE LIMIT: One 4-H or FFA member will be allowed to sell only two animals (One of each species). One bovine only, exhibitor cannot sell 1 steer and 1 dairy heifer. Example: one steer or heifer and one lamb, one steer or heifer and one pig, one lamb and one pig, one chicken one rabbit, one goat one pig, etc. Under no circumstances will any individual be allowed to sell more than one steer or dairy heifer. Up to two broiler pens and one fancy bird from the Junior Poultry Division and up to four rabbits from the Junior Rabbit Division and up to six goats from the Junior Meat Goat Division, will be eligible for the Junior Livestock Sale.

5. Any Junior Exhibitor may withdraw from the sale any animals he/she so desires other than the Grand Champion or Reserve Grand Champion Steer, Swine, Lamb, Dairy Heifer or Meat Goat and the exhibitor who wishes to pull steer, swine, lamb, dairy heifer, or rabbit from the sale must notify the superintendent of that decision in writing, in the Jr. Livestock Office NO EXCEPTION by one (1) hour after Steer Show on Thursday, October 6, 2016. Animals not in the Junior Livestock Sale will remain the property of the Exhibitor. Should an exhibitor have both the Grand and Reserve Grand Champion Steer or Dairy Heifer, only the Grand Champion will be sold.

6. PACKER ANIMALS: ENMSF may secure packer bids on steers, swine, lambs as a courtesy for exhibitors. Maximum pay weights are: Steers-1350 lbs., Swine-290 lbs., Lambs-130 lbs. ENMSF reserves the right to weigh animals at will.

7. There will be a 10% handling charge deducted from the price of all non-sale packer animals to cover all expenses incurred by ENMSF.

8. If an exhibitor does not properly care for his animal (feed, water, cleaning pens, etc.) during the Fair and before delivery to the packer, he or she will be charged for this service and his or her eligibility to show in future years will have to be considered by the Junior Livestock Committee.

9. It shall be the responsibility of the exhibitor to see his/ her animal in the designated sale order. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of the sale slot. Exhibitors are required to sell their own animals unless excused by the Superintendent for documented health reasons.

10. Any Junior Exhibitor or anyone acting in his or her behalf, contacting a buyer for repurchase of livestock from Premium Sale; will forfeit premium and premium sale receipts.

11. The Eastern New Mexico State Fair reserves the right to permanently mark all animals sold through the Junior Livestock Sale.

12. Each animal sold in the Sale will have 10% of the proceeds deducted to help finance promotion for securing buyers to participate in the Sale. A $15.00 fee will also be deducted from each animal sold to pay for the color picture provided to the Buyer. If more than one buyer, $10.00 will be deducted for each buyer's picture.

13. Medication: The use of chemical or compound that is not approved by the FDA for use in meat producing animals and the illegal use of approved chemicals or compounds is prohibited. As a condition for participation in the sale, every exhibitor must agree to submit any animal entered by exhibitor to inspection by a veterinarian appointed by the Fair Board, FDA, USDA/FSIS, New Mexico Department of Agriculture, and/or New Mexico Department of Health and agrees to have such animal submitted to any test designated and requested by the veterinarian. The Fair Board specifically reserves the right to have tissue, blood, or urine laboratory analysis made on any animal entered into the competition. The conclusion reached by drug testing committee, as to whether such animal has been administered a diuretic, unapproved growth stimulant or other medication, or has not been properly withdrawn from approved drugs shall be final, without recourse against the Fair Board and any of its officers. ENMSF shall be entitled to disqualify an exhibitor whose animal tests positive for any drug, even if the exhibitor and the exhibitor's parents or guardians are innocent of any wrongdoing and did not administer the drug.

14. Junior Livestock Sale exhibits will not be paid until the Eastern New Mexico State Fair has received payment from all the buyers. This pertains to Sale and add-on monies.

15. No baskets/gifts will be presented to the buyers on ENMSF grounds. Thank you notes and/or tokens of appreciation are encouraged by the fair board but should be presented off fair grounds. If you would like to deliver a gift to your Buyer(s) after the sale please contact Cherri Michelet Snyder at 575-626-1913 for an address or send them cards or gifts throughout the year once you receive your list of buyers and add-ons with your check.
